

CLIENT'S BILL OF RIGHTS

*Each client has a right to impartial access to treatment, regardless of race, religion, sex, sexual preference, marital status, veteran status, ethnicity, age or handicap. The personal dignity of each client is recognized and respected in all care or treatment provided.

*Each client has the right to be free from neglect, exploitation; and verbal, mental, physical and sexual abuse.

*Each client has the right to expect that all treatment records or information will be kept confidential in compliance with agency policy except as authorized and as required by law. No information/records will be released without written permission of client or other appropriate designee, except to the physician, insurance company or hospital/facility client transferred to. The client will have access to all their health care records.

*Each client has the right to exercise personal privacy by withholding consent or family's or significant other's participation and to be informed of the possible consequences of that action.

*Each client has the right to be informed of the nature and purpose of any services rendered and the name and title of personnel providing that service.

*There are circumstances that would allow for exceptions to obtaining informed consent such as: situations involving threat of harm to self or others, child or elder abuse. Under these circumstances information about the individual served must be disclosed or reported.

*Each client has the right to participate in the development of their plan of treatment, evaluate the plan of treatment and voice grievances without fear of negative impact on the service provided and be aware of the process of voicing those grievances.

*It is the right of each client to receive individualized treatment which includes:

*Adequate and humane services regardless of the source of financial support.

*Services provided in the least restrictive environment possible.

*An individualized treatment plan which is reviewed periodically and as needed.

*To be treated by competent, qualified and experienced professional clinical staff who are supervised as appropriate.

*If at anytime during the course of treatment it is felt by client, the family, or surrogate decision maker that a care-related conflict exists between themselves and the agency:

They have the right to request the opinion of or have their plan reviewed by a staff consultant or an independent consultant at his/her expense.

*The client has the right to request a referral for services which the organization does not provide, to be involved in the discharge planning process, and be aware of any aftercare needs.

*The client will be informed of his/her rights in a language they can understand.

*Each client has the right to be notified of any/all costs of services rendered, the source of the organization's reimbursement, and any limitations placed on duration of services.

*Each client has the right to make decisions regarding the withholding or resuscitative measures with these decisions respected per agency policy.

*Recipients have rights protected by state and federal law and promulgated rules. For Information contact:

CLIENT EMERGENCY PLAN

FOR A LIFE THREATENING EMERGENCY: CALL 911

If you believe you are in danger or in imminent risk, suicidal or homicidal with intent: Please do not waste time calling our office or the clinician on call! You may want to attempt to contact your physician, but proceed to the emergency room immediately.

Business Hours:

The Center for Counseling is dedicated to delivering personal, client focused care. Our office is open 9 am-9 pm Monday through Thursday and 9 am – 4 pm Fridays to meet your needs. During business hours if you have the need to speak with your clinician prior to your next appointment, please call our office at 1-586-273.7095. If your clinician is not available, we will make every attempt to contact them in a timely manner to return your phone call within 24 hours. If this is an EMERGENCY as defined above, please follow the directions. Your clinician will do their best to provide intervention over the phone. However, your clinician may request after no more than 10 minutes on the phone, that you schedule an appointment within 72 hours.

It will be the policy of The Center for Counseling to formally charge a fee for phone calls. These charges are non-billable to your insurance and will need to be paid by your next session. The fees are: 10-30 minutes = $45, 30-60 minutes = $90, and after 60 minutes, the charge will be $1.00 per additional minute. _____

Before/After Business Hours:

If an urgent matter arises which you would like to discuss with your clinician, dial 1-586-273-7095 to receive the pager number. You will receive instructions to page the on-call clinician and leave a number. You will receive a return call within 15 minutes. If your call is not returned, please re-page the number, or call the 24-HOUR CRISIS LINE at 1-586-307-9100. The on-call clinician will make every effort to contact your clinician in a timely manner to return your call within 24 hours.

PRIVACY NOTICE

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND MADE KNOWN, AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW THE INFORMATION CAREFULLY.

- Your private healthcare information may be released to other healthcare professionals within The Center for Counseling for the purpose of providing you with quality mental health and substance abuse care.
- Your private healthcare information may be released to your insurance company for the purpose of The Center for Counseling receiving payment for providing you with needed healthcare services.
- Your private healthcare information may be released to public or law enforcement officials in the event of an investigation in which you are a victim of abuse, a crime or domestic violence.
- Your private healthcare information may be released to other healthcare providers in the event you need emergency care.
- Your private healthcare information may be released to a public health organization or federal organization in the event of a communicable disease or to report a defective device or problematic event to a biological product (food or medication).
- Your private healthcare information may not be released for any other purpose than that which is identified in this notice.
- Your private healthcare information may be released only after receiving written permission from you. You may withdraw your permission to release private healthcare information at any time.
- You may be contacted by the agency to remind you of any appointments, healthcare treatment options or other health services that may be of interest to you.
- You have the right to limit the use of your private healthcare information. However, the agency may choose to refuse your limitation if it is in conflict of providing you with quality healthcare or in the event of an emergency situation.
- You have the right to receive private communication about your health status.
- You have the right to review and photocopy any/all portions of your healthcare information.
- You have the right to make changes to your healthcare information.
- You have the right to know who has accessed your private healthcare information and for what purpose.
- You have the right to possess a copy of this Privacy Notice upon request. This copy can be in the form of an electronic transmission or on paper.
- The agency is required by law to protect the privacy of its patients. It will keep private any and all patient healthcare information and will provide patients with a list of duties or practices that protect private healthcare information.
- The agency will abide by the terms of this notice. The agency reserves the rights to make changes to this notice and continue to maintain the privacy of all healthcare information. Patients will receive a mailed copy of any changes to this notice within 60 days of making the changes.
- You have the right to complain to the agency if you believe your rights to privacy have been violated. If you feel your privacy rights have been violated, please mail your complaint to the agency:

The Center for Counseling
ATTN: Office Manager

All complaints will be investigated. No personal issue will be raised for filing a complaint with the agency.

RULES & EXPECTATIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL SERIES

- A release of information must be signed so that information can be released to the court.
- Pay a registration fee, which will be used as payment for last group session. If for any reason you do not complete group this registration fee is non-refundable.
- Final reports will not be released unless all payments are made in full.
- Your group session rate will be charged if you do not give a minimum of 24 hour notice for cancellations. (Voice mail is on whenever office is closed and you can leave a message, which we can get date and time from)
- No admittance to group if you are later than 5 minutes after the group start time. You will have to make up the group session the next time around.
- Courts will be notified if you miss initial group session.
- Court will be notified if 2 group sessions are missed.
- If 2 sessions are missed you must start the series over. If you miss one session it must be made up the next series or you must start over.
- If you are under the influence of any mood altering substance you will be asked to leave group for the week. You will be allowed to return the next week and make up the group you were asked to leave.
- If you come to group twice under the influence you will be discharged from group and your probation officer will be notified.
- Participation and appropriate behavior during group is required

I have read and understand the above rules and expectations for group sessions.
